SUPPORT FOR LENDERS

Let us help you reduce your problem loans. Whether you need help returning NPL's to performing status, liquidating owned assets or working with borrowers to make sure they don't become your next NPL, our experience and professional credibility can solve your problems. We know that time is the issue. Our strong sense of urgency and technical competency are perfectly matched for today's lenders needs. Our extensive experience in negotiating efficient equitable solutions with debtors will work for you. With over 35 years of experience negotiating solutions between debtors and lenders we are extremely well prepared to negotiate practical and realistic solutions for all parties. We don't waste time or money with unrealistic solutions. We spend our time arriving at and, quickly implementing a workable solution.

Often, we are able to identify an alternative solution for the lender to see their investment again. That is the type of "outside the box" thinking that repeatedly validates the decision to hire Burke Advisory. It is in the interests of management and shareholders to work out a resolution that limits losses (including costs) and creates opportunities for gains (or recoveries). Banking Regulators, in a rare joint statement, have cautioned against an approach that might create larger losses than might otherwise be achieved; favoring instead a more balanced approach designed to allow more business recoveries/workouts/turnarounds. If you have lost confidence in the operator, allow us to oversee the turnaround as a court appointed receiver.

Burke Advisory provides financial advisory and turnaround services to lenders and borrowers. The services we provide are tailored to the unique needs of each institution. Our firm remains on the cutting edge of workout strategy and the related litigation issues. We are well-informed and continually adapt to the ever-changing world of the economy, federal regulatory guidelines and today's unique marketplace opportunities.

At Burke Advisory, we treat your clients with courtesy and integrity. We guarantee efficient, honest service that achieves remarkable results. Our years of experience and notable expertise ensure that your engagement is in good hands. As a Member in good standing of the prestigious TURNAROUND MANAGEMENT ASSOCIATION, we adhere to their strict Code of Ethics in all of our activities.
